"This is our school newspaper. It kept us informed about school happenings and brought to light many controversial subjects. Unfortunately they never printed my name under any of my 'letters to the editors'. Nonetheless, U-Highers always looked forward to each issue..This was truly a Barbaric organization."

"This was an organization. Unfortunately, the Boys' Club was "aced out" by the lunchroom. Nonetheless, with Dick Penn as president this organization had a very fruitful year. They contributed a large sum of money to the Mary McDowell Settlement House and the South Chicago Neighborhood Club, and a T.V. to a lucky prefreshman. Sponsoring assemblies, tournaments, and of course the Boys' Club Dance were some of its additions to U-High social life. In completion, my only comment is "This was the best Boys' Club this school has ever known." YEA!!!"

"This was a very feminine organization. It seems that in our school, accommodations for English and Soc were more important than a girls' lounge. However, under the direction of Mimi Shaw, the Girls' Club flourished. It sponsored some very successful events such as the Christmas Toy Drive, many open houses, the Mother-Father-Daughter Party, and the ever-popular Girls' Club Dance. Man to man, this was a really great Girls' Club group. YEA!!!" Aen

"This was a Frantic Organization. Although they rejected my idea to give the second graders night parties, I must admit that they ran the school very capably. Canteen this year, held in Lilli House, was open every afternoon and almost every Friday night-although not for second graders. With the soda fountain as an added attraction, U-Highers spent much time in Lilli House. Stomp-inns, the Bazaarnival, and the Foster Child Fund were some of the important projects of the Student Council. It is evident that this was a Really Active Student Council."

"This was a very law abiding organization. Through experience and frequent contact with them I have learned to curb my Mad emotions and to swallow my apple, core and all, before I reach old Belfield Hall. The Student Board owes its success to its competent monitors and judges. Though only in its second year, I can truthfully say that this is the best Student Board this school has ever had. YEA!!!" "This was a really # organization. At three in the morning when you're in bed, the Jimmie Shanties are being led (They sing you know!) Aside from contributing much entertainment to U-Highers, such as assemblies and Broadway on the Midway, they performed at Orchestra Hall. This was the most successful year J.S. has ever had. "This was a sporty organization. Besides sponsoring intramurals, intergrade sports, girl's interscholastic teams, the Intramural Board party, and of course the various student-faculty games, this year the Intramural Board also sponsored the Basketball Sock Hop and a Freshman Splash Party. . . As captain of the football team I have worked hard with this organization and know how much they have done to promote school spirit."
